NRS

220.120. Compilation, organization, revision and publication of NRS: Form and style; numbering and arrangement; inclusion of notes and reference materials; changes and corrections; legal effect of renumbering; resolution of nonsubstantive conflicts between multiple laws.

1. In preparing the annotations and keeping Nevada Revised Statutes current, the Legislative Counsel is authorized:

- (a) To adopt such system of numbering as the Legislative Counsel deems practical.
- (b) To cause the revision to be published in a number of volumes deemed convenient.
- (c) To cause the volumes to be bound in loose-leaf binders of good, and so far as possible, permanent quality.

2. The pages of Nevada Revised Statutes must conform in size and printing style to the pages of the Statutes of Nevada, and roman style type must be used.

3. The Legislative Counsel shall classify and arrange the entire body of statute laws in logical order throughout the volumes, the arrangement to be such as will enable subjects of a kindred nature to be placed under one general head, with necessary cross references.

4. Notes of decisions of the Supreme Court, historical references and other material must be printed and arranged in such manner as the Legislative Counsel finds will promote the usefulness thereof.

5. The Legislative Counsel in keeping Nevada Revised Statutes current shall not alter the sense, meaning or effect of any legislative act, but may renumber sections and parts of sections thereof, change the wording of headnotes, rearrange sections, change reference numbers or words to agree with renumbered chapters or sections, substitute the word "chapter" for "article" and the like, substitute figures for written words and vice versa, change capitalization for the purpose of uniformity, correct inaccurate references to the titles of officers, the names of departments or other agencies of the State, local governments, or the Federal Government, and such other name changes as are necessary to be consistent with the laws of this state and correct manifest clerical or typographical errors.

6. The Legislative Counsel may:

- (a) Create new titles, chapters and sections of Nevada Revised Statutes, or otherwise revise the title, chapter and sectional organization of Nevada Revised Statutes, all as may be required from time to time, to effectuate the orderly and logical arrangement of the statutes. Any new titles, chapters, sections and organizational revisions have the same force and effect as the 58 titles originally enacted and designated as the Nevada Revised Statutes pursuant to chapter 2, Statutes of Nevada 1957.

(b) Add, revise, move or remove nonsubstantive definitions in titles, chapters and sections of Nevada Revised Statutes to effectuate the orderly and logical arrangement of the statutes, improve readability or reduce repetitious or lengthy words or phrases.

7. If the Legislative Counsel renumbers any section of Nevada Revised Statutes because the section has been moved, divided or combined with another section during the reorganization of the statutes or for any other reason, the citation to the previously assigned number in any legal document, publication, signage or in any other place shall be deemed to have the same meaning and legal effect as if the citation were to the new number, regardless of how long it has been since the new number was assigned and regardless of any revisions made to the section after the assignment of the new number, unless another intent is otherwise specified.

8. The Legislative Counsel shall assign NRS numbers to such new permanent and general laws enacted at any regular or special session.

9. The Legislative Counsel shall resolve all nonsubstantive conflicts between multiple laws enacted at any regular or special session as if made by a single enactment. If multiple amendments to a single section of NRS are made during a regular or special session, such amendments are all effective and must be compiled in a manner that is consistent with the intent of the Legislature as determined by the Legislative Counsel.

10. The Legislative Counsel shall substitute the name of any agency, officer or instrumentality of the State or of a political subdivision whose name is changed by law or to which powers, duties and responsibilities have been transferred by law, for the name which the agency, officer or instrumentality previously used or which was previously vested with the same powers and charged with the same duties and responsibilities.

1951, p. 470; 1953, p. 388; 1963, p. 1022; 1965, p. 1459; 1989, ch. 106, § 3, p. 248; 2003, ch. 5, § 1, p. 327; 2003, ch. 367, § 18, p. 2093; 2009, ch. 134, § 1, p. 483; 2011, ch. 498, § 247, p. 3257.

Effect of amendment. The 2009 amendment, effective May 19, 2009, added (7) and redesignated accordingly.

The 2011 amendment, effective July 1, 2011, in (6), added the (6)(a) designation and (6)(b); substituted "regular or special session" for "legislative session" in (8) and the first and second sentences of (9); and made related changes.

220.125. References in NRS to persons with physical, mental or cognitive disabilities to be made using respectful language.

1. The Legislative Counsel shall, to the extent practicable, ensure that persons with physical, mental or cognitive disabilities are referred to in Nevada Revised Statutes using language that is commonly viewed as respectful and sentence structure that refers to the person before referring to his or her disability.

2. Words and terms that are preferred for use in Nevada Revised Statutes include, without limitation, "persons with disabilities," "persons with mental illness," "persons with intellectual disabilities" and other words and terms that are structured in a similar manner.

3. Words and terms that are not preferred for use in Nevada Revised Statutes include, without limitation, "disabled," "handicapped," "mentally disabled," "mentally ill," "mentally retarded" and other words and terms that tend to equate the disability with the person.

2007, ch. 255, § 1, p. 906; 2011, ch. 426, § 2, p. 2600.

Effective date. This section is effective July 1, 2007.

Effect of amendment. The 2011 amendment, effective October 1, 2011, substituted "intellectual disabilities" for "mental retardation" in (2).

220.130. Printing and reproduction of NRS; prices and sales; retention of master copy.

1. Upon completion of Nevada Revised Statutes, the Legislative Counsel shall have it printed, lithoprinted or reproduced by any other process by the State Printing Office and may create or cause to be created reproductions of Nevada Revised Statutes, alone or in combination with any other legal publications, on electronic discs or any other available medium. The Legislative Commission shall determine the number of copies which must be printed or reproduced of each page of each volume of Nevada Revised Statutes with annotations.

2. Upon completion of the final printing or other reproduction, the separate volumes must be bound as required in this chapter and retained by the Legislative Counsel for safekeeping and disposition. The Legislative Counsel shall sell each set, and may sell individual volumes, discs, parts or pages when available, at a price to be set by the Legislative Commission as near as possible to the cost of preparing, printing and binding or other reproduction, and all proceeds of sales must be deposited in the Legislative Fund.

3. A master copy of Nevada Revised Statutes must be kept in the office of the Legislative Counsel, and the master copy must not be removed from the office except in the custody of the Legislative Counsel.

1951, p. 471; 1953, p. 388; 1957, pp. 4, 544; 1959, p. 609; 1963, p. 1023; 1965, p. 1460; 1967, p. 90; 1969, p. 1523; 1971, p. 1547; 1973, pp. 1119, 1461; 1985, p. 463; 1989, ch. 106, § 4, p. 248; 1989, ch. 282, §§ 14, 43, pp. 591, 602; 1993, ch. 466, § 174, p. 1536; 1995, ch. 434, § 10, p. 1110; 1997, ch. 9, § 21, p. 16; 2005, ch. 318, § 7, p. 1081.

Editor's note. Acts 2003, ch. 328, § 19, provides that, notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary:

1. The State Printing Division of the Department of Administration is hereby transferred to the Legislative Counsel Bureau on July 1, 2003. * * *

5. No public agency is required to use the services of the Printing Division, and the Printing Division is not required to produce any work for a state agency except work required by statute to be produced for:

- (a) The Legislative Counsel Bureau of the Nevada Legislature: or
- (b) The Supreme Court of Nevada. * * *

Cross references. As to requirement that one set of Statutes of Nevada be donated to the Nevada historical society, see NRS 381.255.

220.140. Reimbursement of superintendent of state printing division for printing.

Repealed by Acts 2005, ch. 318, § 42, effective June 8, 2005.

220.150. Authorized expenditures from Legislative Fund to pay for costs related to publications.

Money in the Legislative Fund may be expended for:

1. Payment of the costs of printing, reproduction, binding and mailing of Nevada Revised Statutes with annotations, supplements thereto and other publications authorized by the Legislative Commission.

2. The purchase and maintenance of necessary equipment and the purchase of supplies connected with such publications.

3. The payment of salaries, payroll costs and contract services of personnel directly connected with such publications.

1955, p. 405; 1957, p. 544; 1959, p. 609; 1963, p. 1023; 1965, p. 1461; 1971, p. 1547; 1973, p. 1119; 1989, ch. 106, § 5, p. 249; 1989, ch. 282, §§ 15, 44, pp. 591, 603.

220.155. Acceptance of gifts, grants and bequests to pay for costs related to publications.

The Legislative Commission may accept gifts, grants and bequests of moneys from any public or private source, which moneys shall be deposited in the Legislative Fund and used for the purposes of NRS 220.150.

1963, p. 12; 1963, p. 1008; 1973, p. 1120.

220.160. Printing and reproduction of supplements; prices and sales.

1. Upon the completion of Nevada Revised Statutes with annotations, the Legislative Counsel shall prepare and have printed or reproduced such replacement and supplementary pages for such laws and annotations as may, from time to time, be necessary and may create or cause to be created reproductions of the replacement and supplementary pages, alone or in combination with any other legal publications, on electronic discs or any other available medium. In any event, the Legislative Counsel shall prepare replacement and supplementary pages made necessary by a regular or special session as soon as possible after each such session.

2. The intent of this section is that Nevada Revised Statutes be kept current insofar as may be possible. To that end, the provisions of this chapter, and in particular NRS 220.120, apply to the preparation and printing or reproduction of such replacement and supplementary pages.

3. Prices must be set by the Legislative Commission as near as possible to the cost of preparing, printing and reproduction. All money received for the sale of such replacement and supplementary pages must be deposited to the credit of the Legislative Fund.

Effect of amendment. The 2011 amendment, effective July 1, 2011, substituted "a regular or special session" for "the sessions of the Legislature" in (1) and made a stylistic change.

220.165. Distribution of NRS and supplements to Legislators; payment of costs.

The Legislative Counsel shall provide:

1. A complete set of Nevada Revised Statutes with annotations to each person who becomes a Legislator upon payment by the Legislator to the Legislative Counsel Bureau of the sum of $50; and

2. Sets of replacement or supplementary pages, as issued, without charge, to each Legislator during the Legislator's term of office if the Legislator has acquired a set of Nevada Revised Statutes pursuant to subsection 1.

1967, p. 1256; 1973, p. 2; 1989, ch. 106, § 7, p. 249; 1989, ch. 282, §§ 17, 46, pp. 592, 604; 2011, ch. 498, § 249, p. 3258.

Effect of amendment. The 2011 amendment, effective July 1, 2011, substituted "Legislator" for "member of the Legislature" and "member" in (1).

220.167. Distribution of NRS and supplements to district, justice and municipal courts; payment of costs.

1. Each board of county commissioners shall provide a complete set of Nevada Revised
